Summer Perry of Surterre Sells Custom Cameo Shores Residence Listed at Just Over $7 Million

Posted by Justin Hutchinson

NEWPORT BEACH, CA - Summer Perry has yet another accomplishment to add to the stellar year she's having, with the sale of 4633 Fairfield Drive — a stunning custom home in Cameo Shores designed by Scott Cross of SC Homes — officially closing in late June.

Listed for sale at just over $7 million, the Polynesian-inspired manse located at 4633 Fairfield Drive showcases the renowned designer's soft contemporary flair along with a slew of opulent amenities, including a wine tasting room, a movie theatre and a backyard spa with mesmerizing ocean views.

Summer has represented SC Homes — an organization known for its luxurious-yet-laid-back custom designs — in the sale of several residences throughout the last two years. But her experience is not limited to coastal Orange County's gated seaside communities. From Costa Mesa to Laguna Niguel to Palm Springs, she's building a well-deserved reputation as a savvy agent who can not only negotiate the most favorable deals, but who can deliver a consistently bar-raising level of service that surpasses the expectations of even the most discerning buyers and sellers.

As a part of Surterre Properties, Summer's enjoys an unparalleled level of support in all her initiatives as a real estate professional. Led by the local luxury industry's most respected experts, Surterre has, since its 2006 inception, customized its every effort to cater to the area's discerning clientele — with outstanding service and experience the utmost priority at all times.
